YMCA Victoria and Youth Justice

“A unique and positive partnership” - The YMCA has provided programs and services into Victoria’s youth justice facilities for 20 years, and works with every young person in custody on a daily basis.

We have seen first-hand the “revolving door” of youth re-offending.

Based on this experience, we developed The Bridge Project – a community led initiative to provide mentoring, jobs and training for young ex-offenders with Victorian employers. Now we have started our own business - ReBuild Facility Services.

Our competitive edge

ReBuild is a professional facility maintenance service with a socially inclusive approach. Your maintenance budget can help you meet your corporate social responsibility objectives and enable your business to directly get involved in the rehabilitation process and provide young ex-offenders with a second chance.

ReBuild trains, supports and provides jobs to young people caught up in Victoria’s youth justice system. When you use ReBuild, you help our employees become more self reliant and financially independent. This not only helps young people to help themselves, it also saves the community millions of dollars in re-offending costs.

- For every youth who doesn’t re-offend, our community saves over $120,000
- ReBuild has successfully helped to reduce the re-offending rate from 66% to 3% with the youth they assist.

Why use ReBuild?

Every time ReBuild delivers a service to your organisation, you help us support a young person to re-build their life. You help us to provide:

- Work for the most disadvantaged youth in the state
- Award wages to build financial independence and reduce the need to re-offend
- Ongoing training and investment in our maintenance crews
- An opportunity to build resilience, pride and self esteem.

The boys from ReBuild have been really good. Their work has been done in public arenas and they have conducted themselves with a professional manner. ReBuild have transformed the outside area for the benefits of the kids at the centre. Great Work!
